Rozmowa 2.

Woman: What's the matter, Peter?

Boy: I'm ill. I have a fever, a headache and a sore throat.

Boy: All right, thank you very much.

Rozmowa 3.

Woman: You won again. You are such a good player.

Boy: Don't worry, Mum, you'll learn how to play, too.

Woman: I hope so. Can I use your racket next time?

Boy: Sure, no problem.

Woman: Great. Remember to take the balls from the court.

Rozmowa 4.

Woman: Rob, I'm cooking tomato soup. Would you like some?

Girl: Let's hope it will be sunny tomorrow.

Tekst 2.

Boy: Kate, could you collect my cousin, Emma, from the train station? She's arriving today to take part in tomorrow's marathon.

Girl: Sure, no problem. But wait, I've never seen her. What does she look like?

Boy: She's got short, dark hair.

Girl: Do you know how she will be dressed? A tracksuit and trainers, I guess?

Boy: I don't think so. She's always very elegant, so I'm sure she'll wear a dress. I'll give you her phone number, just in case.

Tekst 3.

Boy: When I was younger I wanted to be a detective. I watched crime stories and tried to guess who the criminal was, but I think this job is too dangerous. But I don't think we need two doctors in the family.

Girl: Dad, have you got my magazine?

Girl: Sure.

Tekst 5.

Girl: Mark, guess what! A new gym opened yesterday near my house and I'm on my way there now. I'm going to follow your advice and do more exercise. I've also invited Lucy, and we will exercise regularly, just like you do!
